

Noteworthy Performances in Brunswick County Schools

Elementary Schools	Commendations
Belville Elementary	Increased overall performance composite
Bolivia Elementary	Improved overall reading and math scores
Jessie Mae Monroe Elementary	Made adequate yearly progress (AYP); increased overall performance composite
Lincoln Elementary	Met HIGH growth; increased overall performance composite; greatest increase in reading scores (7.12%)
Southport Elementary	Met growth
Supply Elementary	Met growth; increased overall performance composite
Town Creek Elementary	Made adequate yearly progress (AYP); met HIGH growth; increased overall performance composite
Union Elementary	Made adequate yearly progress (AYP); met growth; increased overall performance composite
Virginia Williamson Elementary	Met growth; increased overall performance composite
Waccamaw School	Made adequate yearly progress (AYP); met growth; increased overall performance composite

Middle Schools	Commendations
Cedar Grove Middle	Met growth; increased overall performance composite
Leland Middle	Met growth
Shallotte Middle	Met growth; increased overall performance composite
South Brunswick Middle	Met growth; increased overall performance composite

High Schools	Commendations
Brunswick County Academy	Increased graduation rate
Early College High School	Made adequate yearly progress (AYP); met HIGH growth; increased overall performance composite
North Brunswick High School	Made adequate yearly progress (AYP); met growth
South Brunswick High School	Made adequate yearly progress (AYP); met HIGH growth; increased graduation rate
West Brunswick High School	Increased graduation rate

Blue-Schools that exceeded performance measurements required by NC Department of Public Instruction & US Department of Education

Green-Schools that met performance measurements required by NC Department of Public Instruction & US Department of Education

Yellow-Schools that met two performance measurements required by NC Department of Public Instruction & US Department of Education